

New London Historical Society sponsors

The Great Backyard Bird Count

A perfect activity for the entire family. No birding experience necessary.

Where: Meet at the New London Historical Village Country Store
179 Little Sunapee Road, New London, NH

When: Saturday, February 17 from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Why: To count and photograph birds!

Spend an hour tallying birds on your preprinted checklists;

Photograph birds within the unique backdrop of the Historical Village;

Enjoy the views, the birds, and being outside on our wintry hill.

Local birder Dylan Jackson will be on hand to help identify the different species.

Afterwards...enjoy warm refreshments in our Country Store. (No admission fee.)

This is an international effort to track how birds are doing and to provide data to researchers at Cornell Lab of Ornithology and the Audubon Society.