

Honoring local history and the 250th Anniversary of the American
Declaration of Independence

OPEN VILLAGE AND HISTORY EXPO

New London area history in the 18th/19th centuries

179 Little Sunapee Road - New London, NH

June 14, 2026 10:00 AM - 4:00PM

Meet the early citizens of the area

Hear the voices of history, feel the lives of these ancestors in the open historical village

Moses Trussell - First pioneer in New London

Governor Josiah Bartlett, who signed the Declaration of Independence - 12 Noon

Colonel Edward E. Cross of 5th New Hampshire

Claude Goings of 8th New Hampshire- local violin maker

Dr. Anna Littlefield-a New London woman physician and naturalist

A Sanitary Commission Nurse serving the troops

Lectures on The American Revolution by Alex Cain

10:30 AM Lexington & Concord

2:30 PM Bunker Hill (where Moses Trussell fought)

Historic military encampments, cannon salute and fife and drum parade

(Times to be announced)

Food will be available

